

Rock in China Introduction

Your source for Chinese underground music, be it Rock, Pop, Metal, Punk or Jazz.

Started in April 2004, the Rock in China project grew from year to year to its present size:

- Own domain: www.rockinchina.com
- Fully functional wiki system (wiki.rockinchina.com)
- Underground Podcast (radio.rockinchina.com)
- Underground promotion label (Last.fm – Rock in China)
- Information on over 300 Chinese bands, numerous venues, festivals, records, books, magazines, etc.
- Continuous gig listings for over 2 years! (incl. Upcoming API connection)
- Videos & Photos from professional underground photographers (YouTube & Flickr connection)
- A download pages with numerous free and legal mp3
- Interviews with foreign and Chinese bands
- Articles & MA thesis researching Chinese underground music
- Having given support to Chinese and foreign bands for 3 years!

Since 2004, as Rock in China started as a subpage of the Painkiller Heavy Music Magazine (Beijing, China), we have lived our cooperation and used mutual resources to spread the news about Chinese underground music. Having moved to our own servers and our own domain Rock in China is having cooperations with the following associations, organizations, websites and institutions:

- Painkiller Heavy Music Magazine
- Midi Modern Music School / Midi Modern Music Festival
- Modern Sky Records
- Mort Productions
- Subjam Records / KwanYin Records
- Yan Jun
- Small Swords Magazine
- Yaogun.com
- Lvzhou.net
- Yiren Katoshi
- Shanghaistreets.net / GigShanghai.com
- Chaile.org
- Etc.

For more info visit us at www.rockinchina.com